

pay /paid/ paid
save / save / save keep / kept /kept

1. The teacher is terrible, she can't keep control of her students.
2. My son never stops talking, he can't keep quiet for a minute!
3. Can I pay by credit card?
4. Here's €10. keep the change.
5. As a child I never paid attention in class.
6. The most important thing to do in the exam is keep calm.
7. My son is saving money to buy his first car.
8. I saved space in my wardrobe by storing my winter clothes in boxes under my bed.
9. I parked my car on double yellow lines and I had to pay a fine.
10. Always turn off the lights when you leave a room in order to save energy.
11. A colleague of mine died yesterday, I'm going to pay my respects to his wife tomorrow.
12. I use LED light bulbs to save electricity.
13. Don't forget to save the report on the hard disk drive.
14. Mr Jones is a terrible patient. He never keeps his appointments.
15. Don't exercise today, save your strength for tomorrow's marathon.
16. My sister has kept a diary since she was 14 years old.
17. While I'm in Birmingham I'm going to pay my auntie a visit.
18. Last night my husband paid me a compliment, he said he liked my new dress.
19. Don't ask Brian to help you, he never keeps a promise.
20. You go and buy the popcorn and I'll save you a seat in the auditorium.
21. To save time I'll do the shopping during my lunch break at work.
22. I've left my wallet at home and I can't pay the bill.
23. Go and buy us some coffee and I'll keep your place in the queue.
24. If you don't study you'll pay the price when it's time for the exam.
25. Give me your email address and telephone number so we can keep in touch.
26. Don't tell Helen, she can't keep a secret to save her life!
27. When I was young I nearly drowned in a lake, but a woman jumped in and save my life.
28. Don't go to the train station to book your ticket, save yourself the trouble and book it online.
29. I have to pay a lot of interest on my bank loan.